

Policy on Will Reimbursement

Financial members of The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation NT Branch, (ANMF NT) are able to apply to the Branch for reimbursement of up to $300 towards the drafting of your own personal 'Will' by a lawyer or the public trustee.

ANMF NT Branch reserves absolute discretion as to whether, to provide reimbursement of $300 towards compiling a personal will. The following criteria will apply:

- a. you the member must have been a financial member with the ANMF NT for twenty-four (24) consecutive months.
- b. Halfpenny's and MSP solicitors are the lawyers of choice as determined by ANMF NT.
- c. should the member choose another law firm, the value of the will reimbursement remains at a maximum of $300.
- d. access to the will reimbursement may only occur once and only applies to the actual ANMF NT financial member and not to other members of your family.
- e. reimbursement will be to the nominated bank account of the financial member.
- f. reimbursements only apply to invoices from within the previous 6-month period.

The process to receive the reimbursement is:

- you the financial member must meet the ANMF NT criteria as listed above.
- and completes the process with your lawyer of choice or the Public Trustee to have a will drafted in your name.
- once you have your will and have paid the fee to your legal representative or public trustee, then the ANMF NT financial member (you) presents the receipt and completed 'Will Reimbursement Form' to the ANMF NT office via email for reimbursement into your nominated bank account.
